Kansai RDM Human Resource Development Consortium

DATA STEWARD TRAINING PROGRAMME — SESSION 4

Research Data Management in the Humanities

Challenges, Practices, and Research Support

Tuesday, 10 November 2026

Grand Front Osaka · Umekita SHIP Hall

Research data management and research support in the humanities: practical perspectives from Japan and Europe.

AM : WORKSHOP (Closed, members only)

Led by members of Freie Universität Berlin

Part 1 Research Data in Digital Humanities
Research examples in short videos, followed by group discussion.

Part 2 Supporting RDM in the Humanities
Practical examples of services and support for humanities researchers.

PM : INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM (Registration OPEN)

Chair: Hayato Kanzaki, The University of Osaka

15:20–15:30	Opening Remarks — Naoto Kai The University of Osaka / Consortium Lead
15:30–16:15	Keynote — Kiyonori Nagasaki International Institute for Digital Humanities
16:15–16:25	Break
16:25–17:05	Sibylle Söring and Cosima Wagner University Library, Freie Universität Berlin
17:05–17:25	Mari Agata Faculty of Letters, Keio University
17:25–17:45	Ayano Kokaze Historiographical Institute, The University of Tokyo
17:45–18:00	Break
18:00–18:30	Panel Discussion : RDM and Research Support in the Humanities Moderator: Nikolaos Voulgaris, The University of Osaka Panelists: Kiyonori Nagasaki, Sibylle Söring, Cosima Wagner, Mari Agata, Ayano Kokaze
18:30	Closing Remarks — Tomoji Tabata Graduate School of Humanities, The University of Osaka

Organiser: Kansai RDM Human Resource Development Consortium

Co-organisers: Interdisciplinary Network in the Humanities, Graduate School of Humanities, The University of Osaka
University Library, Freie Universität Berlin

For librarians, URAs, research-support professionals, researchers, graduate students and anyone interested in RDM and digital humanities.

Contact: Kansai RDM Human Resource Development Consortium Secretariat
Research and Development Unit, University Library, The University of Osaka dataeco-kansai-conso [at] office.osaka-u.ac.jp

Website

Symposium Registration